A Fresh Perspective

At Climb Art we use our creative imaginations across print, web and multimedia platforms to energise a company's marketing, build a better brand and generate real world results.

Climb Art is a full service design agency offering support for businesses in any market, and across all media.

We work closely with our clients to create exciting new directions for their print and digital marketing, and unify their branding across all marketing media, from e-commerce website design, company brochure and stationery production to advertising campaigns and video presentations.

Our experienced and friendly studio team is skilled across the widest range of design and production fields, from copywriting and illustration to video editing and programming. We're lucky to have all of these essential creative skills inhouse, so we can offer our clients the very best combination of marketing solutions to convey a consistent message and achieve their marketing goals.

Motion design & production

Our video and motion graphics projects harness the combined powers of filming, editing, animation and sound to create marketing tools with maximum impact.

We look closely at your company's marketing objectives and target audience to create multimedia presentations that can convey complex messages in a clear way, or energise simple ideas with the excitement that only motion and sound can achieve.

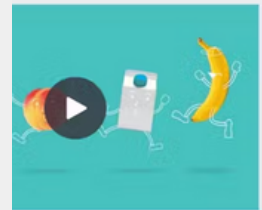

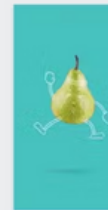

We look closely at your company's marketing objectives and target audience to create multimedia presentations that can convey complex messages in a clear way, or energise simple ideas with the excitement that only motion and sound can achieve.

Our motion portfolio covers everything from animated online training workshops to corporate videos and promotional films. We'll guide you every step of the way through the creative process, from concept and storyboarding to shooting and editing, ensuring that the final presentation has all the right messages, delivered across all the right media platforms.
